Grocery Chain To Return

Kroger To Build Market On Winland Facility Site

The Kroger Co. today announced plans for the construction of a new, modern supermarket in East Liverpool. It will be located on the site of the Winland Building.

The announcement came from C. B. Stern, vice president of the Kroger Co.'s Cleveland Division, which covers Northeastern Ohio and Western Pennsylvania.

Stern said that the firm plans to open the retail outlet sometime early next spring.

WORK ON RAZING the Winland Building and grading the site is expected to begin shortly.

Pvt. Eddy Post 66, Veterans of Foreign Wars, announced sale of the building Oct. 31 to the Walnut Realty Co. of Youngstown.

The site is at the southeast corner of Walnut and Minerva Sts.

The entire structure will be razed, officials of the firm said. The area will be graded for the new building and a large parking lot.

Kroger has not had a store in East Liverpool for several years.

THE NEW STORE will be of brick and block construction, with a modern design. It will be brick and colored stone on the exterior, with a large, open glass front.

It will have approximately 17,000 square feet. The parking lot, with space for over 150 cars, will be lighted.

All of the ultra-modern shopping conveniences, such as speed checkouts, express lane, air curtain dairy, self-service meats and produce, plus many other innovations and fixtures will be incorporated, the firm said.

Stern said "this will be the most modern supermarket in the East Liverpool area."

ABOUT 40 full-time and part-time employees will be used.

Kroger is the world's fourth largest retailer and third largest food retailer, with annual food sales of approximately $2 billion. According to Stern, Kroger is the largest Ohio-owned food corporation both in dollar volume and number of employees.

Victor Shuttrup & Sons Co. of Youngstown has been designated general contractor for all phases of the work.

The VFW owned the large Winland Building since 1946.

Kroger operated a store at Broadway and Potters Alley for many years in a building now occupied by Mike Turk, Inc.

Two Vessels Catch Afire After Crash

Only One Injured In Collision Of Freighter, Tanker

BUZZARDS BAY, Mass. (AP) — A Norwegian freighter and a coastal tanker collided in early morning haze today 10 miles off the southern entrance of Cape Cod Canal and were locked together in furious flames.

The Coast Guard said fire was raging aboard the tanker Dynafuel, 3,100 tons, as she was joined to the 6,732-ton freighter Fernview.

The Fernview's fire apparently was brought under control, and the 15 to 20-man crew of Dynafuel was transferred to the Fernview as the blazing tanker settled in the water.

The Coast Guard cutter General Greene moved perilously close to the fire-swept tanker in efforts to separate the two vessels.

One seaman, unidentified, was reported to have suffered a leg injury. He was taken off the Fernview on a small boat and was flown by helicopter to Otis Air Force Base.

The Dynafuel was proceeding in ballast from Newington, N.H., to Newark, N.J. She had discharged a partial cargo at Sun Oil storage depot in Revere Tuesday and then proceeded to Newington.

Most of her crewmen were believed to be from the Philadelphia area.

The Fernview was en route to Boston with general cargo from Japan and the Philippines after a stop in New York. Her Boston agents are Peabody & Lane Co.

The Coast Guard reported the Fernview is owned by Glittre & Marina.

Chester Eyes Assessment To Help Park

A proposed 50-cent monthly assessment for Chester water customers to provide funds for the City Park is to be recommended to City Council at a Dec. 3 meeting by the new Central Park Committee.

The committee plans to suggest to Council a special election be held on the issue.

The proposal was adopted at a meeting of the Committee Wednesday night at which R. M. McFarland of California Ave., Lloyd Mansfield of Neptune Ave. and Mrs. Harold Ossman of Indiana Ave. were named tri-chairmen of the group.

The committee is comprised of representatives of various civic and service organizations in the city, formed to plan a program for park improvements.

Since the park was presented to the city by the firemen in 1957, there has been no specific tax support for it. Organizations and individuals have contributed and Council at times has allotted funds, however.

The 50-cent assessment is proposed for each family of water users for a period of three to five years. The assessment would bring in about $6,000 annually.

Plans for the park improvement call for construction of tennis, volleyball and basketball courts and other projects. At present, the park has a football and softball fields, horseshoe facilities, playground equipment, picnic area and the community building.

About 19 representatives of 11 organizations attended the joint meeting with the City Park Commission. Harold Dickey, Park Commission chairman, presided.

The group will meet again Nov. 20.

Queries Hint Recount On Council President

Inquiries made to the County Election Board indicate that a backer of Arch H. Smith, Democrat, may seek a recount of at least some of East Liverpool's 34 precincts in an attempt to upset the 21-vote margin by which he apparently lost a race for Council president Nov. 5 to George E. Willshaw, Republican.

Smith has until 4:30 p.m. today to file a former recount application, asking a tally of all or any part of the returns, Frank R. O'Hanlon, Election Board clerk, pointed out.

The official canvass gave Willshaw 2,889 votes and Smith 2,868. O'Hanlon said if a recount is requested, it may be set for Nov. 21, the same date on which a new tabulation of returns for Third Ward councilman already has been scheduled.

Eight U.S., S. Koreans Not Armed

Small Unit Trapped By Communists In Demilitarized Zone

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — The U.N. command accused Communist North Korea today of a double-cross ambush of eight unarmed U.S. and South Korean soldiers in the demilitarized zone. One American was wounded and a South Korean captain was presumed dead.

The U.N. command said the Communists trapped the tiny unit and fired about 1,000 rounds in about four hours Wednesday afternoon. Seven men escaped after darkness fell.

North Korea was advised in advance that the two Americans and six South Koreans were going into the zone to check border markings, a U.N. spokesman said, and each man wore a yellow arm band identifying him as being on "authorized business."

The South Korean, seriously wounded, was left behind when the rest of the group plunged into an icy river and hid beneath its bank until dark.

The wounded American, an enlisted man, was shot in the thigh but got away. His identity was withheld until his family was notified.

The other American, Lt. Col. Alpheus R. Clark, 43, of Leavenworth, Kan., also was hospitalized, suffering from shock and exposure. He was the leader of the group.

The shooting occurred about 60 miles northeast of Seoul, on the north bank of a branch of the Han River.

Clark's mission was to check border markings that divide the zone into North and South Korean halves. The zone, about 3,000 yards wide, was established across the Korean Peninsula by the 1953 armistice to keep the Communists and U.N. armies apart.

A U.N. spokesman gave this account of the incident:

The inspection team had been in the zone about two hours when the Communists, hidden in thick underbrush and grass, opened fire from about 150 yards away.

Clark and his men ran for the river, seeking cover. The South Korean captain couldn't make it.

Four Jailed In Mahoning Crime Probe

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Refusal to answer questions before the Mahoning County grand jury investigating crime and gambling conditions has resulted in the jailing on contempt of court charges of the first four witnesses called.

William Gaul, Benjamin White and Steven Almsay, all of Struthers, were jailed Wednesday, joining Michael Granchay, also of Struthers, who was ordered to jail Monday afternoon.

The four dodged all questions by pleading protection under the Fifth Amendment. They refused to testify even though promised immunity from prosecution.

All but Almsay appeared before a federal grand jury in Cleveland last summer. White was indicted for perjury for denying before that jury that he had ever engaged in gambling in Struthers, where he has an arrest record.

Common Pleas Court Judge Sidney M. Rigelhaupt ruled that the questions asked the four witnesses here did not violate their constitutional rights and cited them for contempt when they ignored his order to answer the questions.

To Wake Phone Employee

Siren Of Police Cruiser Used As Big Alarm Clock

When all else failed, the siren of a police cruiser was sounded early today as a giant alarm clock to rouse a sleeping employee who was needed at the telephone company plant to help find a "bug" that had knocked the exchange out of service.

Residents of the area said a metal sign at the intersection with the Calcutta-Cannons Mills Rd. was hammered down by one of the rolls which partially unrolled, and scattered broken pieces of metal.

Mrs. Kenny Burt who resides nearby, said she saw sparks fly as the steel rolls skidded and rolled on the concrete. She said the impacts made banging noises.

Plans for the park improvement call for construction of tennis, volleyball and basketball courts and other projects. At present, the park has a football and softball fields, horseshoe facilities, playground equipment, picnic area and the community building.

The roll struck the doors of the garage, causing moderate damage, the Smith family said. The mishap was timed at 5:50 p.m.

Residents of the area said a metal sign at the intersection with the Calcutta-Cannons Mills Rd. was hammered down by one of the rolls which partially unrolled, and scattered broken pieces of metal.

At the request of the East Liverpool exchange of Ohio Bell, police sent cruisers to the homes of the plant employees throughout the city to round them up and take them to a response.

It did. The sleepy telephone worker appeared, heard the story of the emergency, and was on his way soon to make repairs.

Police rigged up several improvised communications setups to help fill the gap in the telephone outage.

Experimenting, Lt. Bosco found there was no dial tone when one picked up the receiver. However, by dialing "O" for operator, he was able to talk with an operator at the exchange.

Officer Bosworth radioed to headquarters for instructions.

Board Of Directors Meets

Midland C. Of C. Favors Uniform Pollution Code

The Midland Area Chamber of Commerce went on record Wednesday night that any proposed regulations concerning air pollution should be uniform for the entire steel industry.

The action follows the recent report of the Pennsylvania Air Pollution Commission, listing Midland as one of the areas in the state with the most serious pollution problem.

The Chamber's Board of Directors, meeting at the McGeehan Agency, said a uniform code is necessary to erase any fears the Legislature might allow different standards for different areas that might hurt the competitiveness of industries, particularly steel.

The Chamber also urged that regulations should be national, similar to the federal regulations on stream pollution.

This would guarantee that other steel firms in the Tri-State area, including Ohio and West Virginia, would have to meet the same requirements.

"This would eliminate possible economic hardships that could seriously hurt competition, operations and employment," the board said.

The Crucible Steel Co., target for most of the complaints through Midland Council, employs some 6,000 from the Tri-plants.

State area at its Midland

Progress was reported on plans for the annual Christmas parade, Nov. 29, and for decorations on Midland Ave., with Chamber members to erect trees on light poles Sunday.

Businesses and organizations were urged to send donations soon for the Christmas program. Residents may make $1 donations at the Chamber of Commerce at the McGeehan Agency.

While some organizations have not contributed, all are asked to do so, since the Christmas program is a community effort, the Chamber said.

Charles R. Schmitt, president, appointed Olen Gibson, Mr. S.

John Adams, Don Parker, Don

Green and Lester Pickering as a nominating committee to select a slate of new directors.

The committee will report at the meeting Dec. 11.

Katich's Confectionery and Dr.

Edward Gronceski were announced as new members of the Chamber.

Band Boosters Of Midland Plan Musicians Party

A Christmas party for the band members was set tentatively for Dec. 14 at the meeting of the Midland Band Boosters Tuesday night at the high school.

Mrs. Charles Castelli and Mrs. S. W. Todd will be co-chairmen of the event. Mrs. Sam Mamula will select a place for the party.

Mrs. Richard Bailey, chairman, said there would be 18 cheerleaders and three chaperones to be housed during the holiday basketball tournament in Midland Dec. 27-28.

Teams participating will be from Aliquippa, McKeesport, Martins Ferry and Midland.

The membership drive was discussed and money received to date was turned over to Mrs. Bailey. It was reported that over 100 attended the band's recent skating party, and that the Christmas card sale had been concluded.

Blankets used by the band to keep warm during games will be checked in the near future.

Pete Vuyakovich, president, said meetings through the duration of the basketball season will begin at 6:30 p.m. so that members may attend the games.

Mother Of Three Cites Affair With Accused Slayer

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—A petite mother of three has testified in the trial of T. Eugene Thompson on a murder charge that she had an illicit relationship with the defendant.

Jackie Okoneski Olesen testified Wednesday about trips to hotels and motels in other cities with Thompson over a period of years.

Prosecutor William Randall claims Thompson engineered the murder of his wife, Carol, 34, for the love of Mrs. Olesen and for the more than $1 million insurance he took out on his wife's life during the 13 months preceding her death last March 6. Thompson, 35, a St. Paul attorney, is charged with first degree murder.

Mrs. Janice Jones, 26, of 8th Ave., LaCroft, suffered injuries to the back and left hip in the fall through the landing. She was admitted at 7:25 p.m.

Dr. J. L. Ward, 52, of 2103 St. Clair Ave., a veterinarian, suffered a fracture of the left wrist when he slipped and fell in a barn.

Keith Alford, 16, son of George Alford of Wellsville R.D. 1, was treated for a sprained left ankle received playing basketball.

William Cowan, 5, son of Lynn Cowan of Longview Heights, suffered a laceration of the forehead in a fall on a stone.

Jeffrey Payne, 4, son of Clifford Payne of Shadyside Ave., received a cut of the temple in a fall on a coffee table.

Kirk Linger, 12, son of Charles Linger of Georgetown R. D. 1, suffered scalds of the upper left leg when a cup of hot tea spilled on him.

Mrs. Olesen said she met Thompson in 1957 when she was a witness in a divorce case. She said she again met him in 1958 when she started a divorce action against her first husband.

Preceding her on the stand was her estranged second husband, Ronald Olesen. He said he had telephoned the Thompson home and, in the absence of Thompson, had told Mrs. Thompson to tell her husband that "I was tired of him bothering my wife and that if he did not quit it I was going to try to get him some way—legally or physically—to stop him."

On cross examination, Mrs. Olesen said she had broken off with Thompson in 1962 after he had told her he never intended to marry her.

Easter Comes Early In 1964

Department of Defense experts briefing newsmen on the new shape of things in South Viet Nam have pinpointed Easter as the time for reaping the military benefits, if any, of the overthrow of Ngo Dinh Diem.

Well, Easter comes early in 1964 — March 29.

If the U.S. government knew what it was talking about when it was urging the overthrow of the Diem government, the fighting men of South Viet Nam will have all the Vietnamese Communists on the run by that time. All they needed, it was said, was a new government.

Fact of the matter is, they were supposed to have had them on the run even before the overthrow of the government occurred. But then it was reported that the military effort subsided and sagged during the overthrow and now must pick up momentum again.

SINCE THEN, according to Department of Defense experts, the Vietnamese army has resumed its offensive. In due time, it will be reported that U.S. technical forces now in South Viet Nam will be coming home, if not by Christmas, perhaps by Easter. Remember when U.S.

Administration By Deceit

Time after time during its three years in office, the Kennedy administration has been accused of using the truth loosely.

Shortly after it took office, the Bay of Pigs fiasco took place. At first, the administration denied any part of it. Later, it was revealed that the United States not only had a hand in planning the affair but had promised air support (which it denied) and then withheld it after the die was cast (which it also denied).

Then the government denied it had anything to do with raising ransom payments for Bay of Pigs prisoners. But when the truth came out, Bobby Kennedy was one of the fund raisers.

DURING the showdown with Russia, the Kennedy administration admitted it had lied about certain events. It said it was cricket to manage news to mislead the enemy.

Latest incident has to do with a State Department security officer fired because he told the truth to a Senate subcommittee on internal security.

It was revealed the officer's associates had tapped his telephone, yet State Department officials denied under oath the wire was tapped.

The Kennedy administration never officially denied it prompted the revolt in South Viet Nam; it implied the coup was a spontaneous uprising. But later it became apparent the CIA bought and paid for the whole affair.

When Mr. Kennedy was campaigning for the presidency, he made political hay out of an accusation that a missile gap existed between the United States and Russia. After election, the missile gap suddenly disappeared.

In addition, Mr. Kennedy claimed the prestige of the United States was low, based, at least in part, on the fact President Eisenhower had admitted knowing about and approving of the U-2 flights over Russia.

forces in South Korea were going to be home by Christmas? That was 1950.

Most of us think the United States has bogged down in another Korea and that it won't make much difference whether South Viet Nam has one government or another, as far as carrying on the war is concerned.

The trouble is that the United States expects Asiatics to fight Communists as if they were embattled suburbanites in the United States repelling an invasion from the Soviet Union. That's not the way it is.

THESE ARE Asiatics fighting Asiatics in a mercenary war in which the bread-and-butter issue is whether one side offers a better deal than the other. Relatively few Vietnamese have convictions one way or the other.

Capitalism is unknown to them as a practice. Communism is unknown to them as a theory.

Will it really be all cleared up by next March 29. Anyone want to bet?

It hasn't been cleared up in South Korea yet. The United States is still there.

Administration By Deceit

It seemed Mr. Kennedy felt U.S. prestige suffered because a president had the courage to be truthful.

Apparently he still thinks that truth and the presidency are incompatible.

MORE AND MORE people on both sides of the political fence are becoming aware of Kennedy administration's tendency to use the truth loosely.

We believe this may become a big factor in the 1964 presidential race. And it could be the difference between Mr. Kennedy winning and losing his race for a second term.

Trading Bait

Kremlinologists, familiar with Russian techniques, think a Yale professor of political science has been seized on a charge of spying in Moscow so he can be traded for a Russian named Igor A. Ivanov being held for trial in this country on the same charge.

The Yale professor, Frederick C. Barghoorn, is no more a spy than your Aunt Agatha. He is an intellectual who has thought long and hard about the Soviet Union and written books about it. The books are said to be uncomplimentary.

That's all the political hierarchy of the Kremlin would want to know about Prof. Barghoorn to put the arm on him as a suspected spy. It is in the familiar pattern of one-party thought to assume that anyone who isn't a Communist in the prevailing style, currently Khrushchevian, must be at best a capitalist dog and at worst a spy.

This is not in what is referred to as the "new spirit of Moscow." The old spirit, which doesn't seem to have changed any, is to make the end justify the means. The end in this instance is to round up trading bait for an exchange of prisoners. The Russians had no prisoner handy so they had to find one—Prof. Barghoorn.

That's the old spirit!

The Road To Mental Health

Columbiana County is making noteworthy progress in its efforts to move ahead in the field of mental health.

Following up the opening of the new clinic at Lisbon is the workshop which will be held Friday afternoon at Westgate School here.

More than 900 are expected to attend — a definite indication of the increasing interest in the program to help curb the many problems that go with failing mental health.

Too often in the past mental illness has been allowed to go on its treacherous way without anything being done. When the critical stage was reached and treatment was sought it generally was too late.

The new county clinic can prove of inestimable value if its facilities are used to the fullest.

Treatment of failing mentality is something that can't be put off until tomorrow if satisfactory results are to be expected. The quicker the patient is exposed to consultation the quicker the hope for recovery. Delay only can mean increasing complications and an extended period of treatment.

The burden is on those responsible for care of the mentally ill. The new clinic at Lisbon stands ready to serve those in need.

By Truman Twill

If someone proposed that all of us should wear uniforms, we'd bash in their heads. But most of us wear uniforms voluntarily without complaining — nurses, dentists, filling station attendants, beer truck drivers, deliverymen, executives, farmers, newspapermen, etc. Newspapermen? Holes in seat of pants. What else?

Former Notre Dame Coach Frank Leahy says he doesn't know why but the old do-or-die spirit isn't there the way it was when "there was no personal glory, no personal aggrandizement." Doesn't that explain the difference, coach? Boys don't play football for dear old Siwash any more. They play for money.

Winter is closer than it was the last time I thought about how close it was and I still don't have the new galoshes I have been intending to buy for six years. Oh well, maybe I can make it through one more winter . . .

With the exception of a comic strip which shall go unidentified because it doesn't appear in my favorite paper, I do not read these newspaper standbys, which is a source of sorrow and wonderment to my family, friends and co-workers, who keep telling me what I'm missing.

An urgent telegram from rocket and missile cameramen at Cape Canaveral reached President Kennedy on Wednesday, Nov. 6.

This was the eighth day of the strike of space photography specialists at the Cape and the secret Merritt Island base from which U.S. astronauts will some day blast off to the moon.

Victor Riesel

sites were stormy and unsettled, the newspapers carried top headlines every day warning of disaster unless drastic legislation were enacted to curb the rights of labor.

"Now that labor has done a magnificent job and made a great contribution to the safety and security of the American people, the subject is no longer considered newsworthy."

CERTAINLY it's newsworthy that Haggerty can report that of 30,762,400 man days worked on missile and test sites in the last two years, there was a loss of only 26,158 man days because of strikes.

The wire said that the strikers, "recognizing the vital importance of moonport to our country," wanted binding arbitration. The strikers then requested that the President submit the dispute to "final and binding arbitration with Victor Riesel . . . to act as impartial chairman of an arbitration panel with additional members of his choice . . .

I'm willing to help because I'm opposed to stoppages at our missile and space bases. Arbitration is sometimes distasteful. But it is far better than being wasteful with the American talent, time and money going into the space race.

Thus the record for missile sites is 700 per cent better than for civilian construction.

There is the story. It's startling. It's exciting to know that there are 1200 per cent fewer strikes now than before the national construction leaders gave a firm "no-strike" pledge in 1961.

But the fact that this has not been told previously is hardly reason for Neil Haggerty and his colleagues to lash out at the press for having reported the earlier strike wave.

Perhaps on re-examining the old record, Haggerty will be equally willing to recognize that the nation's press helped somewhat in making the new record.

An Unpopular Program

By David Lawrence

Democrats Have Failed To Pass Legislation

President Kennedy would be overwhelmingly defeated if the presidential election were held today and the standards of judgment and the system prevailing in other English-speaking democracies such as Canada or Great Britain — were applied.

The Democratic party, which holds 67 per cent of the membership of the Senate and almost 60 per cent of the House of Representatives, has failed after more than 10 months of continuous sessions to pass the legislative program proposed by its titular leader, President Kennedy.

The truth is the chosen representatives of the Democratic party have been unwilling to use their clear majority of votes to adopt the recommendations of the President, either because the voters of the country do not approve or because the legislators have themselves mistakenly interpreted the wishes of the people.

When a party in power under the parliamentary system fails, it's customary for the nation to turn that party out of power in an election called whenever the voters really demand it. Under the American system, there is no such way to fix responsibility.

It cannot be determined immediately whether the President is at fault for having failed to exercise effective leadership within his party. Nor can it be determined for two years after an election whether Congress has really been heeding the voices of the citizens in disapproval of the president's policies or whether the Democrats in Congress have misconstrued the wishes of the people in holding up many of the measures proposed by the executive branch of the government.

It often has been argued that, in the United States, a president who cannot control his own party in Congress can look to the opposition party to gain enough votes so that a coalition will form a majority and adopt his program.

THE FACT is that an unorganized coalition of Republicans and Democrats in both houses of Congress has actually emerged on several controversial issues as an opposition majority to block passage or demand substantial changes in pending measures before they can even be considered for passage.

The conclusion that would be drawn abroad is that the people of this country, through their congressional representatives, disapprove of the legislative program proposed by the Democratic party's national leader and want a change in leadership.

Cambodia—A Trouble Spot?

By James Marlow

President Kennedy hardly had the words out of his mouth when there was more trouble, this time of a kind which may in time be a disaster for the United States.

In his first State of the Union message to Congress almost three years ago Kennedy, after listing the problems ahead at home, said "all these pale when placed beside those which confront us around the world..."

"Each day the crises multiply. Each day their solution grows more difficult."

He cited trouble spots in Asia, Africa, Latin America. And as the years passed the troubles multiplied and waned while fresh ones developed.

Last Friday, talking to the Protestant Council in New York, he said the family of man should be at peace with one another. But he said:

"They are not. Within the last month the world has witnessed active or threatened hostilities in a dozen or more disputes independent of the struggle between communism and free choice—disputes between Africans and Europeans in Angola, between North African neighbors in the Maghreb, between two Arab states over Yemen, between India and Pakistan, between Indonesia and Malaysia, Cambodia and Viet Nam, Ethiopia and Somalia and a long list of others."

He might have mentioned that just one week before, the generals in South Viet Nam threw out President Diem and his brother, both of whom were killed. But last Friday he couldn't have known what was to happen Wednesday.

Early in the day the Iraqi government had to smash a revolution and later in the day came the news of grave consequence to the United States that Cambodia may turn its back on the Buddhists by the then President Diem.

Wednesday he sent out the word Cambodia would cut its ties with the United States, too, and after Jan. 1, 1964, refuse any more American aid, and abandon its neutrality unless the anti-Sihanouk broadcasts were stopped.

The State Department was upset. Worse news was to come. Later Wednesday Red China said Sihanouk had sent word to Peking, pledging close friendship and cooperation.

If the Red Chinese, with Sihanouk's blessing, move into Cambodia the very thing this country tried most to prevent—Red China's direct influence in Southeast Asia—would have come about.

$500,000 Bail Set
For Dope Kingpin

NEW YORK (AP) — Settimio (Big Sam) Accardi, 61, accused narcotics kingpin, is being held in bail of a half-million dollars.

Accardi, brought back from his native Italy after three years of legal maneuvering, was arraigned Wednesday in federal court as a bail jumper. Once a lieutenant of the late vice king Charles (Lucky) Luciano, Accardi jumped bails totaling $91,500 in 1955.

U.S. Atty. Robert M. Morganthau insisted on the $500,000 bond—one of the highest in federal court history—for "an extremely bad bail risk."

1st Case Due In City Court On Point Law

For the first time in history, an action initiated against a motorist by the Bureau of Motor Vehicles, seeking suspension of his operator's permit under the Ohio "point system" law, will be heard Tuesday morning at 9 in Municipal Court.

The defendant in the action is Robert Thomas Harding Jr., 24, of 1011 May St., who has accumulated 12 "points" under the demerit system, according to a report certified to the local court by Dave Mainwaring, registrar of the BMV at Columbus.

Previously, the "point" cases were heard in Common Pleas Court in the defendant's home county. Under a change in state law that became effective early last fall, the cases now will be certified to municipal and county courts of the minor judiciary.

Harding already has been sent a notice by registered mail to appear Tuesday morning before Judge Samuel M. Chertoff and "show cause why his license should not be suspended" under the demerit system.

The BMV report says he accumulated 12 points for two convictions. In both instances, he was charged with driving after his operator's permit was suspended. The cases were heard Oct. 15 in Municipal Court here and May 27 in Southwest County Court at Lisbon. Each alleged violation accounted for six points.

Municipal Court has set up a new record system for the "Point" cases. It has opened a separate docket for the cases, styling Harding's hearing as "Case No. 1." Costs incurred in handling the action, along with the disposition will be entered in the docket.

If the defendant's license is suspended, he will be required to pay the costs. The first entry is 75 cents for mailing him the notice of hearing by registered mail.

The actions are classed as civil cases, so the costs will go into the court's civil branch receipts.

Prosecuting Atty. G. William Brokaw will appear to represent the state in Harding's case.

A summary of the "point system" law was included in the BMV certification to the court.

It provides the judge may suspend a permit for six months if the driver has not had a previous suspension under the same law. If there has been one prior suspension, the permit may be lifted for a year for the second.

For two prior suspensions, the third accumulation of 12 points calls for a three-year suspension. If there have been three or more prior suspensions, the court may lift the driver's permit for five years.

Bell Concern May Expand

With an eye towards possible expansion of facilities in the future, the S. H. Bell Co. of Pittsburgh has taken over the Crucible Steel's former National Drawn Division building on Michigan Ave. in East End for use for industrial warehousing.

S. H. Bell, president of the stevedore and warehousing firm, said the property was purchased from Crucible Steel.

The amount of the transaction was not disclosed.

The facility includes about eight acres, with 90,000 square feet, or almost two acres, under roof. Bell said the building is ideal for his operations, since it includes an indoor railroad dock and overhead cranes.

Some modifications are underway, such as the removal of some partitions and old machinery and the laying of some new flooring.

The firm presently employs three full-time and about five or six part-time, depending upon the volume of business.

The firm moved recently from the former car barn in East End, where it shared space temporarily with the Ken Buckley Cartage, Inc., at 1253 Pennsylvania Ave.

Bell emphasized it is not a trucking firm, only a warehousing operation, using mostly local trucking. Operations cover principally the Eastern Ohio area, including Cleveland, Mansfield, Wheeling, Steubenville and elsewhere.

He said he chose East Liverpool for locating the plant because of its good geographical location and accessibility to river, railroad, and air facilities. Paul Vincent is manager.

He said he had good cooperation from city officials.

3 Are Injured
In Blast At Atomic Plant

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — An earth-shaking chemical explosion at an Atomic Energy Commission base alarmed hundreds of people Wednesday despite swift assurances it was not a nuclear blast.

Three workmen escaped with minor injuries. They started running at the sight of a flash as they were loading 13 tons of the explosive material in a remote storage igloo.

The blast occurred at the AEC's Medina base, a secret installation 10 miles southwest of the San Antonio business district.

Official spokesmen said the chemical explosive, similar to TNT, posed no radiation threat although it presumably scattered particles of uranium far and wide. They reported the igloo also contained a mixture of fissionable U-235 and non-fissionable U-238, which may be used as a jacket for H-bomb weapons.

Police, sheriff's officers and newspaper employees relayed word from Medina officials to anxious telephone callers that uranium dust can be harmful only if a large quantity is taken internally.

Appeal Filed
By Vets Club

Columbiana County Common Pleas Court has given the Veterans Social Club of East Liverpool a stay from the State Liquor Commission's suspension of the club's permit for 150 days for alleged liquor violations.

The suspension, effective Oct. 10 to March 8, was stayed by Judge Joel H. Sharp pending the club's appeal in Common Pleas Court.

Atty. Hugo Alexander of Steubenville is counsel for the East End club, which had been charged by the State Liquor Board for violations.

The club was declared a nuisance by Common Pleas Court last year and had observed an earlier closing time for several months. The club later asked that the restrictions be modified and Judge Sharp put the officers on probation.

Bond of $100 was posted by the club so it can remain open until the hearing against the suspension.

The patient, blind for several years as a result of cataracts, will undergo an operation at City Hospital as soon as arrangements can be completed by a local physician authorized by the foundation to perform the operation.

The Chester Lions Club participated in all the fund-raising projects, he added. Two Chester residents have previously benefitted from foundation aid.

Zone Meeting Held

By Lions At Weirton
Albert J. Logston of Chester, chairman, presided at a zone meeting of Lions Clubs Thursday night following the regular meeting of the Weirton club.

Officers from the Chester, Newell, New Cumberland, Foliansbee and Weirton clubs attended the meeting.

At the dinner of the Weirton club, Hancock County Sheriff Supt. Robert Hall discussed his trip to Sweden.

During the telephone outage, officers made arrangements to help relay fire alarms. Had an alarm been received, a cruiser would have been sent direct to the fire station with the information, Lt. Bosco said.

Police headquarters here notified the Columbiana County sheriff's office at Lisbon and the Hancock County sheriff's office in New Cumberland of the telephone failure. The sheriffs' call received at the exchange could not be relayed to another telephone, even with manual operation.

Siren

Assuming that some person confronted with an emergency might also think of dialing "0," Lt. Bosco made arrangements for police to check regularly with the exchange. Every 10 minutes, police checked with the exchange to find if any emergency calls had been received in the meantime. None were.

Because the outage occurred while most of the town slept, probably not one person in a thousand was aware his telephone was not functioning, the lieutenant said.

Deputy Sheriff Herman (Cy) Wellman helped East Liverpool police in transporting telephone company employees to the exchange, making trips to homes of some residing well outside the city limits.

The outage also affected the direct telephone line that links fire and police headquarters. No dialing is required on the direct line. When a fireman or policeman picks up the receiver on the direct line, the set in the other station rings automatically.

Police use the set to relay fire alarms to firemen or to check with firemen on the location of a blaze so that officers also can be sent to the scene.

Police headquarters here notified the Columbiana County sheriff's office at Lisbon and the Hancock County sheriff's office in New Cumberland of the telephone failure. The sheriffs'

Twist Objectionable, Mormon Bishop Says

HONOLULU (AP) — Mormon Bishop John H. Vandenberg has written to the Latter-Day Saints College of Hawaii that the twist is objectionable.

If you toast your own nuts for party nibbles, remember that most nuts take to such savory seasonings as celery salt, onion and garlic powder and paprika.

Governor Sees Ohio As No. 1 In Education Field

WILBERFORCE, Ohio (AP) — Ohio can become the No. 1 state in the field of education if public officials at all levels fulfill their obligations, Gov. James A. Rhodes says.

The governor, at a convocation Wednesday at Wilberforce University, apparently referred to passage of the $250 million bond issue which includes $175 million for higher education.

Prior to his speech, Rhodes received an honorary doctor of laws degree from University President Rembert E. Stokes. Other honorary degrees went to the Rev. William Holmes Borders, Atlanta, Ga., integration leader, and Mrs. Lawrence Science, Kingston-Upon-Hull, England. She is the wife of a former mayor of that city, birthplace of William Wilberforce, British Abolitionist statesman after whom the university was named.

Levy Recount Move Studied

The Board of Education of Columbiana Village Exempted School District is reported considering an application for a recount of Nov. 5 election returns that showed an 11-vote defeat of a proposed new 3-mill levy for school operating expenses.

Returns showed 906 votes in favor of the levy, but 917 opposed.

Because the district lies partly in Mahoning County and partly in Columbiana County, the board might have until about Nov. 22 to act if it decides to seek a recount.

State law requires a recount application to be filed within five days after the results are certified officially. The Columbiana County Election Board made its certification last Saturday. But the Mahoning County board, which reports returns on four precincts in the village district, does not expect to certify officially until Friday.

That would allow the school board until about Nov. 22, five days after the completion of the official certification, to file for a recount.

Meanwhile, the Election Board listed winners of write-in contests for posts in Washingtonville village, which lies partly in Columbiana County and partly in Mahoning County.

They include: Lloyd Culler, treasurer; William Radler and Frank Davidson, councilmen, and Joe Schaffer, Charles Hincheil and Carl Vignon, Board of Public Affairs.

At Rogers, write-in votes named William Crawford and Dale Williams for Council seats, the board said.

Driver Hurt Slightly

When Car Overturns

A 65-year-old Salineville driver suffered minor abrasions when his car overturned into a fence along Route 518 about two-tenths of a mile east of Gavers Wednesday.

George Hazlett, E. Main St., Salineville, was headed west

when the car went off the left side of the roadway, at a curve, then traveled back over to the right side and overturned against a fence owned by Walter Rice of Lisbon R. D. 1, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said.

Hazlett suffered abrasions of the left hand. There was extensive damage to the 1960 sedan, officers said.

He first showed signs of suffering for the lack of moisture. I watered them, but it was too late.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: Don't throw your old nylons away.

They can be used to make nylon yarn. One stocking makes approximately 10 yards of yarn.

Use a color remover (or bleach), and when dry, dye them with an all-purpose dye.

Place the stocking over a large two-pound oatmeal box. Start at the center back seam and cut a continuous strip from the top (one-half inch wide) spiral fashion. Keep cutting down into the leg, making the strip about one-fourth inch wide as you get nearer the ankle part. Finish cutting the smallest part of the leg of the stocking while holding it in your hand.

The sheerer the stocking the wider the strip should be cut.

START WINDING the strip at the foot end, stretching and pulling as you wind it, to make your yarn ball. The edges of the strip will roll toward the center. Cut out any weak places in the stocking and tie them together with a flat knot.

This wonderful nylon cord crochets beautifully and can be used for afghans, bath mats and lap robes for the car.

Three nylon stockings make one 6-inch block for an afghan. I crochet this on a steel crochet hook size 00.

After each block is crocheted, it may be steam pressed. I measure and block mine about six inches wide.

MRS. W. W. LEWIS.

Ladies, this woman enclosed a sample and it's absolutely beautiful.

This nylon yarn would make fabulous bath mats. They do not mildew and the soil is easily washed out of them because they are 100 per cent nylon and we wash the dirt off, and not out of nylon.

After the stocking is cut and pulled, as Mrs. Lewis stated, it looks like a big thick string and none of the cut edges show.

You might try making an afghan or bath mat. If the nylon strips were cut a little wider, you could make a hot pad or bath mat a little thicker. And really I see no reason to dye them. After all, we do love tones of beige and brown ... and the variegated tones are beautiful.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: When a recipe calls for "well-beaten eggs", beat the whites first with a rotary beater, then drop in the yolks and give it a few more turns and you will have the well "beaten" eggs you ever saw and a lighter cake.

A.B.A.

DEAR HELOISE: I have an iron stew kettle and I have tried everything I know to get it ready to cook in.

But . . . every time I cook in it, it turns everything black. Can someone help me? I would like to be able to cook string beans etc. like my mother used to.

MRS. R. H. FRITZ.

Does anybody know Many of these iron kettles are handed down from family to family. They are the most precious possessions many housewives have. If you have the answer to this, please write to Heloise.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I read in your column that dried, aged bar soap lasts much longer than fresh soap, but it cannot dry the wrapper is on . . .

In New England we dry soap behind the stove, but one could use a warm closet, perhaps a cabinet over the oven.

When you buy new soap always put it in the back of the previous supply so that the older soap will always be in the front. The longer it dries out, the longer it will last.

MRS. JACK WEBER.

DEAR HELOISE: I always keep a supply of sugar cubes to use when I fill my vacuum bottle with coffee. Thus . . . no spilled sugar over the mouth of the vacuum bottle, such as usually occurs when we use a spoon and loose sugar.

8 On Strike Are Convicted Of Contempt

JEFFERSON, Ohio (AP)—Eight members of United Auto Workers Local 1169 on strike at the Molded Fiber Glass Body Co. at Ashtabula have been convicted of contempt of court following an 11-day trial.

They were charged with violating a court order limiting picketing and banning obstruction at the plant gates.

A ninth defendant, Stewart R. Gray, 24, of Ashtabula, was acquitted of the contempt charge.

The nine were the first of 34 strikers cited for contempt to be tried. The charges resulted from outbreaks at plant gates since the walkout by 700 members of the union Oct. 17 following a breakdown in contract negotiations.

Company officials said the eight convicted Wednesday—each of whom was given a fine and a five-day suspended jail term—would be fired from their jobs.

Robert L. Wiese, vice president in charge of manufacturing, said, "We do not want people like that on the payroll."

Frank J. Anastasi, regional subdirector of the UAW, said the union would protest the findings.

"There will be no settlement of this strike until these people are assured of their jobs," he said. "This union went out on strike together and it'll go back together."

The defendants pleaded guilty to the charges, filed by Deputies James Knox and Lester Wehner of the office of Sheriff Joseph H. Manypenny.

Common Pleas Court Judge Roland Pontius noted in exonerating Gray that he was arrested before the violence occurred and that no one was trying to enter or leave the plant at that time.

Wouldn't Be Highest Paid Hurler Though

Koufax Expected To Demand Salary Hitting $65,000 For Next Season

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—The word from Los Angeles is that Sandy Koufax is demanding $65,000, exactly double his estimated salary in 1963 when he topped all major league pitchers with 25 victories and added two more in the World Series against the New York Yankees.

Should the spectacular southpaw succeed in his reported demand, he will become the highest paid pitcher in Dodger history but not in baseball. Not even among today's pitchers. Warren Spahn, Milwaukee's indestructible southpaw, drew $77,000 last season.

The highest salary a pitcher ever drew was the $86,000 Bobby Feller earned with the Cleveland Indians in 1946 although his base pay was $50,000.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1963 PAGE 16

"In addition to the $50,000 base pay," Feller recalled recently, "I was to get five cents for every admission over 500,000 and $1,000 for each game I won over 15."

Had Spahn accepted a similar arrangement based on attendance, he would have topped Feller's all-time high for pitchers with plenty to spare.

Spahn had one of his infrequent non-20-game winning seasons in 1952 and was having some contract difficulty with Lou Perini, owner of the Boston Braves, that winter.

Perini felt that Spahn should accept a cut in salary because of his 14-19 won and lost record.

Spahn, who had earned $25,000 in 1952, felt he deserved a raise because of his low earned run average and the fact that the Braves were breaking in a new team.

"I don't recall the exact figures," Spahn said today, via long distance telephone from his home in Hartshorne, Okla., "but Mr. Perini finally offered me a choice of a straight $25,000 salary or $20,000 plus 10 cents a head for every admission over 600,000."

"Anyway, after checking the 1952 attendance figure in Boston (281,278), I decided to play it safe and accepted the flat figure."

The rest is history. Perini moved his Braves' franchise to Milwaukee the following March and the Braves set a National League attendance record of 1,807,526.

Simple arithmetic shows that Spahn would have received a whopping $10,752.60 in addition to the base pay of $25,000.

Celts Win On Defense By Russell

By JIM BECKER
Associated Press Sports Writer
It looks like Bill Russell of the Boston Celtics stopped about 4,300 points before the season even started.

That's the number of points that won't go on the scoreboard, if the National Basketball Association teams continue to play at their current reduced, or Russell, rate.

Defense is the word around the league, and Russell is the reason. The nine NBA teams are averaging some six points less per game this year—that's at least 4,300 over the long season.

Russell, who was feeling so badly he couldn't even get sick before the game—his normal procedure—played all 48 minutes, took 31 rebounds and blocked enough shots to ensure a 114-110 victory for the Celtics over the Lakers Wednesday night, at Madison Square Garden.

That ran the Celtic record for the season to 10-1. The Lakers held on to the top spot in the West with a 7-6 mark.

The revitalized New York Knicks sneaked into third place in the East with a 10-102 victory over the St. Louis Hawks in the second game of the Garden doubleheader.

The San Francisco Warriors, with Wilt Chamberlain collecting exactly half their points, edged the Cincinnati Royals at Cincinnati 98-92, in another of the league's new low-scoring games.

The other teams were idle. The Cincinnati-San Francisco game was nip-and-tuck until the Royals went cold in its last five minutes.

With 4:41 left, Chamberlain made a field goal that put the Warriors ahead, 91-90, and Cincinnati never caught up.

From the time Wayne Embry connected with a field goal with 5:00 remaining until a free throw 21 seconds before the end Cincinnati was scoreless. In that time, the Warriors made 11 points.

Oscar Robertson led Cincinnati scorers with 28 points and Jerry Lucas made 17 while grabbing 17 rebounds.

As a result of this effort, Schmitz was selected "Player of the Week" in the National Football League by the Associated Press on a day when linebackers excelled.

Sam Huff and Jerry Hilebrand, New York Giant linebackers, intercepted Philadelphia passes in the Giants' 42-14

rout of the Eagles. An Eagle linebacker, Lee Roy Caffey, a rookie from Texas A&M, turned in one of the most spectacular runs when he romped 87 yards

after intercepting a Glynn Griffing pass.

Roger Leclerc, a spare linebacker whose main job is to kick field goals, booted two for the Chicago Bears of 30 and 16 yards in the Bears' 6-0 victory over Los Angeles. Linebacker Jack Pardee of the Rams blocked a field goal try by Leclerc in the last minute. The Bears' rush line gave Roman Gabriel a rough afternoon.

Larry Stallings, a rookie linebacker with the St. Louis Cards, fell on the ball after a punt touched Washington's Bobby Mitchell and rolled to the Cards' 14. It led to the last Card TD in a 24-20 victory.

All He Wants Is 50 Cents

Small Stockholder Giving Orioles Fits On Dividends

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The other somewhat less polite hints am sure you understand and can agree." Did stockholder Mayhan agree?

"Hell no, but there isn't much I can do about it," he says with a grin. "All I did was ask for even a check for just 50 cents so I could hang it on the wall."

Mayhan is not from Baltimore but spent his youth in St. Louis where he became enamored of the Browns early in the century. These were lean years but he held fast and, in 1950, bought his stock.

"I'll never tell how much I've got; just say it's a good amount," he says.

There are those among his old friends who say it is one share. Whatever it is, he makes a big thing of it.

The stock cost him $7 a share and is worth $18, he says. And he wouldn't trade it for the hottest blue chip.

REFEREE RED OATES falls on Hawks' Bob Pettit during a scuffle in the New York-St. Louis game Wednesday night. Pettit tangled with Knicks' Tom Hoover and the referee was accidentally shoved in the melee. No one was thrown out of the game and the only thing injured was the official's dignity. New York won, 106-102. (UPI Telephoto)

Hens Vault To No. 1 In College Poll

By The Associated Press
The University of Delaware Blue Hens replaced Northern Illinois today as the nation's No. 1 small college football team in the weekly Associated Press poll by the margin of a single point.

The two unbeaten and untied teams monopolized the voting by the eight-man panel of sports-writers.

The Northern Illinois Huskies, who have won nine games, polled four of the eight first-place votes to three for the Blue Hens.

The Easterners, seven victories on a perfect slate, beat out the Midwesterners, 74 points to 73, on the basis of four second-place votes and one third.

The Huskies received one second-place vote and three thirds. Points were awarded on the basis of 10 for first, nine for second, eight for third, etc.

Southwest Texas, another team with a perfect mark at 8-0, received the remaining first-place vote, but missed making the Top Ten.

Northern Illinois, with George Bork becoming the first forward passer to amass 3,000 yards in one season, completed its regular season last Saturday with a 27-22 victory over Central Michigan. The Huskies now are idle until their appearance Nov. 30 in the Mineral Bowl game at Excelsior Springs, Mo.

Delaware, whipped Temple 32-23 last Saturday. The Blue Hens play at Rutgers this Saturday and close their season against Bucknell on Nov. 23.

Unbeaten, but tied Wittenberg of Ohio moved up a notch to third place in this week's poll with 39 points following a 34-13 triumph over Akron, Massachusetts, which played a scoreless tie with Harvard. In its first game of the season, tied for fourth at 31 points with St. John's of Minnesota and South Dakota State.

Florida A&M, third a week ago, dropped to seventh with 24 points followed by San Diego State, with 18, McNeese, La. State, with 16, and Slippery Rock, Pa. with 15.

Included among the runners-up were Bluffton, Denison and John Carroll.

Coin Will Be Flipped In Case Of NFL Ties

NEW YORK (AP)—In case of a tie or several ties for first place in the two divisions of the National Football League, the sites and opponents will be decided by flips of a coin.

Jim Kensil, public relations director of the NFL, said Wednesday that all teams with a mathematical chance for a division title would meet at Commissioner Pete Rozelle's office in New York. This conference usually is held in the last week in November.

The I's Have It Over Field In Scoring Race

NEW YORK (AP) — The I into second place with 62. Each boys have taken over in the major college football individual scoring race.

Duke's Jay Wilkinson, son of the Oklahoma coach, moved into a contending position with three touchdowns against Wake Forest. Wilkinson has 60 points and is tied for third with Dave Casinelli of Memphis State. Ken Waldrop of Army and Jay Cunningham of Bowling Green.

Billy Lothridge of Georgia Tech fell from second to seventh place at 58 points, but he booted his 11th field goal of the season and now is only two short of the single season record of 13 set by Ed Dyas of Auburn. The three-pointer also was the 20th with three touchdowns and of Lothridge's career, an all-a two-point conversion, moved time record.

The weekly statistics from the NCAA Service Bureau showed today that Iacavazzi has 72 points on 12 touchdowns. Isaacson, with three touchdowns and of Lothridge's career, an all-a two-point conversion, moved time record.

Berra Names Gleeson As Yanks' Coach

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Yogi Berra confesses he feels like a rookie all over again as he waits — with understandable impatience — for the 1964 spring training season to open.

"I can't wait for it to start," said the new manager of the New York Yankees. "I keep thinking about it all the time. I get butterflies in my stomach just thinking about it. I don't like having so much time to think about it. When you're in action, you don't have time to worry."

Did Yogi mean he was a little scared at the thought of managing what through the years has been the most powerful club in baseball? The word "scared" brought a slight redening to Yogi's cheeks.

"Scared?" he repeated. "If I was scared do you think I would have taken a one-year contract? I could have had two years but I turned it down."

Did he have any doubts about his ability to manage?

"I think I can manage but of course I've got to prove it not only to myself but to others," he replied.

Berra made his first official move as Yankee manager Tuesday when he announced the signing of Jimmy Gleeson as first base coach. Gleeson, a major league outfielder some 20 years ago, was Yogi's baseball coach in the Navy.

Turning to the team and its needs for 1964, Berra said he felt the Yankees were strong enough to win the American League pennant without any changes in personnel.

"We're strong every place," he said. "The pitching should be better because of the year's experience gained by the young fellows. We've got a good bench, too."

"We can use another outfielder and a catcher. I'm gonna give Jake Gibbs a shot at the second or third-string catching job. And I want to look at this kid Jimenez (rookie outfielder Elvio Jimenez, brother of Kansas City outfielder Manny Jimenez)."

Indians' Field Staff

Signed Up For Season

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Indians announced Wednesday that signed contracts have been received from coaches George Strickland and Elmer Valo, bringing the entire field management staff under contract for the 1964 season.

General Manager Gabe Paul also announced that Jim Rittwage, 19, right-handed pitcher from Bedford, has signed with the Indians for a very substantial bonus.

Rittwage had a 9-2 record with a Bedford sandlot team last season.

The Indians will play more than half their home games at night next season. Paul said that 43 games will be played under the lights.

Out Of The Air

By ALAN GILL

How To Write With A Feather

Charleton Heston, the actor, abides in the 20th century. He lives in an ultra-modern home he built on a hilltop overlooking the Pacific Ocean and he has a small place in the Michigan woods.

He has two small children and a beautiful wife who gave up acting for motherhood a few years ago because she could — according to Heston — get "a longer run out of it."

But during working hours, Heston seems more at home in the 18th century or the 11th or the 1st, B.C.

FRIDAY NIGHT he will show up on NBC-TV in the "Hall of Fame" production of Sidney Kingsley's "The Patriots" as the Thomas Jefferson of 1776 to 1801, fighting his battle of ideas with Alexander Hamilton and winning it.

He will be wearing a Jeffersonian hairpiece over his own thatch; he'll be posturing in the formal haberdashery of a by-gone era, hoping he will appear to his viewers as contemporary as Y. A. Tittle.

"It's not easy," he said, "surmounting the basic unreality of the costume drama. As a movie house operator said a few years ago: 'Don't send us any more pictures where they write with feathers.'

"I KID YOU NOT, it's tough to make a character believable when he's wearing knee breeches, chain mail or buckskin. The wardrobe has to seem like clothes and not something out of a prop man's trunk."

"But after you've done it for a while, you write with a feather as readily as you do with a ball-point pen. I'm just now inventing the first ballpoint feather."

"Some of the old clothing was marvelously designed, actually.

A lace jabot at the neck is much more comfortable than it looks. I'll take it any day over a starched collar."

"In tights, you get around more freely than in trousers. And a cloak is lots more efficient than an overcoat."

"THERE'S NOT MUCH to be said for chain mail, though. I'll admit, as you stand up there in your metallic drawers on a hill in Spain in an early morning in winter, with the wind whistling about your flanks."

But Heston has been long at this game. He first came to the attention of Hollywood in the robes of Marc Anthony in a university-produced 16-mm. version of "Julius Caesar."

He never has performed since in a Shakespearian work on screen, however, despite his jured when a Pennsylvania playing "Macbeth" at Shakespeare festivals in Bermuda and car at a crossing in Burgettstown, Mich. ("My Mac town" (Washington County).

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Precocious Child Behaves Badly

Suppose you had a child seven, rated by the school pre-cocious, who gets along agreeably with other children in the classroom, does not play at home with other children, sticks close to his mother, still wets the bed and isn't toilet-trained by day. Such a child is described in the Dr. Garry Meyers following letter from a mother of Brooklyn, New York:

"I am writing you regarding my seven-year-old son. He is a very precocious child, far more advanced intellectually than his years. This has been told to me by his teacher and also the mothers of some of the children in his class.

"AS PROUD AS I AM of his scholastic accomplishments, I am also distressed by his infantile behavior.

He still wets the beds, holds back his bowel movements as long as possible and does not play with any children.

"As much as I push him to play with children of his own age, he cannot muster courage to ask them if he can join in. Yet in the classroom he gets along fine with all the children. He would rather stay in the house near me than go out in the air. Give him an audience of adults and he is in his glory.

"I have a 12-year-old daughter whom he adores. She is on the shy retiring side, while he is on the aggressive side.

"Any help or advice you can give me as to the insight of his trouble would be greatly appreciated."

Stanton Booster

Group Will Hold Musical Show

HAMMONDSVILLE — Plans were aired to sponsor a musical show featuring a barbershop singing group from East Liverpool when Stanton Local Athletics Boosters Club met Tuesday night in the school.

The club agreed to accept the barbershop singers' offer of $75 to stage the show sometime in January.

A proposal that the club sell artwork made at Acme Craftware in Wellsville as a fundraising project was outlined by Ed James. No decision was reached.

An allotment of $150 was approved for Coach Harry Diehl for basketball equipment for the Red Raiders.

Nomination of officers was held, with Joe Urich to be unopposed for another term as president in the club's election Dec. 10.

Movies of season football games were screened. Fourteen attended. Next meeting is Dec. 10.

Not Snow—But Suds Pile Up Deep At Dam

It looks much like snow—but it isn't—those piles of white stuff piling up at the overflow of the Stratton Dam.

Lockmaster Henry Conway said detergents in the Ohio River apparently are producing the suds and that the condition has been developing four or five days. The water flowing over the gates agitates the water and creates the foam, probably from household wastes. It is a foot deep in places.

Ex-Librarian Dies

RICHMOND, Ind. (AP)—William M. Hepburn, 89, former head librarian of Purdue University, died Wednesday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. Arthur Funston.

The combined suds, which seek more than $18 million in damages, resulted in a crash near Paris. The jet was chartered by the Atlanta Art Association for a tour of European art centers.

New Wellsville Teachers Feted

TEN new teachers in the Wellsville school system were feted by the Wellsville Kiwanis Club Tuesday night at Piatt's Tea Room. Sixty attended.

New teachers introduced were Joseph T. Mayhew, Miss Marian Izak, Joseph Kaba, Robert Lowther, Miss Miriam Torrence, Richard O. Wilson, Mrs. Catherine McCollam, Mrs. Marilyn Sheets, Miss Frances Karaffa and Don Carter.

A musical program was presented. Miss Izak, choral director, introduced a group of junior high boys who sang. Piano solos and duet were played by David and Eric Bush.

Cedric Stanway, president, presided.

33 Suits In Fatal Crash Consolidated

ATLANTA (AP)—Suits of 33 survivors of victims of an Air France crash in June 1962 have been consolidated on orders of U.S. Dist. Judges Lewis R. Morgan and Frank A. Hopper.

The combined suits, which seek more than $18 million in damages, resulted in a crash near Paris. The jet was chartered by the Atlanta Art Association for a tour of European art centers.

Science Editor Dies

HOUSTON (AP) — Ralph S. O'Leary, 52, science editor of the Houston Post, died Tuesday of an apparent heart attack in Christchurch, N.Z., where he was on assignment.

State May Rest Its Case Today In Domer Trial

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Stark County Prosecutor Norman J. Putman says the state may rest its case today in the Robert K. Domer murder trial.

Putman, who said Wednesday that he has about 10 more witnesses to call, has called 80 of the 115 he had indicated might testify.

Domer, 44, former Canton mortgage investment broker, is charged with first-degree murder in the death of Howard F. Riddle, an Akron fruit peddler whose charred body was found in Domer's burning automobile April 23 along the Stark-Wayne County line west of Massillon.

The state contends Domer killed Riddle, 54, to fake his own accidental death so that his family could collect an estimated $288,000 in insurance.

Geographers regard the 500-mile seaboard strip from southern New Hampshire to northern Virginia as a single city — the longest in the world.

QUESTION: How can I learn to swim?

ANSWER: Although this is a summer question, we will answer it for the benefit of those who might have a chance to swim in an indoor pool.

The best way to learn is to have a good swimmer teach you -- don't try it all by yourself. Many methods are used; here is one recommended by the Boy Scouts. Learn confidence first. It helps to begin in water only waist deep (A). Take a breath (B). Drop your head down on chest and grasp ankles (C) -- you'll float. Straighten your legs to stand up again. Now learn best way to breathe when swimming. Take air in through mouth (D) put head underwater, breathe air out through nose and mouth. Practice this and you'll begin to feel at home in the water, like a fish. Then take a breath and shove off with your feet, arms ahead, head down -- you'll go quite a way. Your instructor will show you how to kick and work your arms and pretty soon you'll be swimming!

FOR YOU TO DO: Before learning to swim, get a checkup from a doctor. And remember these safety hints: never swim alone, have a buddy with you. Don't swim until an hour after eating. Don't swim if tired or overheated; come out if you begin to feel cold.

Susan Searles of Oswego, N. Y. wins today's grand prize of a 20-volume set of the World Book Encyclopedia for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review and you too may win a set.
